

PING PONG

ABOUT

The game has been created in the Processing software where two players play a ping pong game. They can set the score by clicking on the grey button. They can even restart the game by clicking Play Again.

First player has controls of up and down keys whereas the second player has controls W and S for up and down.

INSPIRATION

